Free and open to the public

New connections and friendships were made at our March special event, so you don't want to miss this fall event. Discover how these individuals made the decision to write it all out, and why. You will learn about their writing process, research, editing, and their route to publishing.

Mari Eder returns to Amelia Island to launch her latest book, The Girls Who Fought Crime: The Untold True Story of the Country's First Female Investigator and Her Crime Fighting Squad. Mari is pleased to moderate our author panel and interactive discussion about writing and reading.

Mari was last here in 2022 with her release of The Girls Who Stepped Out of Line: Untold Stories of the Women Who Changed the Course of World War II.

She is published in areas of strategic communications, leadership, and even has two books about the family schnauzers!
